Confirmation

I hereby confirm, by signing this form, that I hereby consent to the processing and disclosure of my personal information for purposes outlined in this consent form. Where I provide such consent on behalf of a natural or juristic person, I confirm that I have the necessary authority to do so. I further confirm that I am aware of the rights afforded in terms of POPIA, which includes but is not limited to:

1. Right to withdraw consent at any time.
2. Right of access to information.
3. Right to lodge complaints with the Information Regulator.
4. Right to object to processing and
5. Right to request that my personal information be updated.

Disclaimer and Indemnification

- Kindly note that though proof of payment for the supply of movable goods exceeding R10 000 is required, the VRA may request proof of payment to verify the refund of tax in respect of movable goods exported where the consideration is less than R10 000. Proof of payment must, where applicable, follow the SARB requirements.
- No claims for refunds will be considered where the qualifying purchaser exports the movable goods more than ninety (90) days from the date of the invoice.
- No claims for refunds will be considered where the refund is not requested and fully motivated within three (3) months from date of export.
- Claims can also not be processed unless all documentation, as set out in paragraph 3 of VAT Export regulation No. 316, Government Gazette No. 37580, has been provided to the VRA.
- Please be advised that the VRA will deduct a commission of 1.3% (one point three percent) for processed claims from the claim amount. Additionally, any incidental forex or transaction costs necessary for the payment of the refund will be deducted from the claim amount. Beyond these, any and all additional charges not directly related to the administration or verification of the claim will also be deducted. This may encompass charges that are not typical for claim verification, but are essential for the processing of the claim
- In the event of submissions via postal claims, it shall remain the responsibility of the qualifying purchaser to ensure that a reliable courier or postal service is utilized, which allows for the tracking of parcels. You agree to hold us harmless if your postal submission does not reach our offices for whatsoever reason.
- Following capturing of your information, an email will automatically be sent to the email address provided by you in which the information captured is set out. It remains your responsibility to ensure that 1) you have received such email; and 2) the information set out therein is complete, true, and correct. Our offices will not be held responsible where the information has been captured incorrectly and you have failed to notify our offices thereof.
- Though we will endeavour to process your claim timeously, it may happen that the process takes longer than anticipated, as we need, amongst others, to obtain additional information or documentation from you which was not necessarily requested at commencement of the process. You agree to indemnify and hold our office harmless if there is a delay in the claim process.
- It shall always remain the responsibility of the qualifying purchaser to ensure that all documentation and information provided to the VRA are complete, true and correct.
- You hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the VAT Refund Agency and our affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, and their representatives against any damages, losses, and liabilities arising from claims not processed or approved by the VAT Refund Agency and/or the South African Revenue Service, other than due to gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- You hereby further agree to indemnify and hold harmless the VAT Refund Agency, our affiliates, and their officers, directors, employees, and representatives against any damages, losses, and liabilities resulting from unforeseen circumstances that may cause loss or damage to your documentation, such as fires, water leaks, and other similar events.
- Documents related to the refund or claim, when entrusted to individuals not directly affiliated with our business or placed at any location, are the sole responsibility of the qualifying purchaser. We accept no liability for any lost, misplaced, or undelivered documents, irrespective of circumstances or negligence. The qualifying purchaser understands the risks and waives any claims against us for document issues.
